Giving the gifts of health, hygiene, and human dignity to our Middle Tennessee neighbors in need

All in for Hygiene is the Community Resource Center's signature annual event, bringing together over 300 CRC donors, volunteers, and community supporters for a fun and fabulous casino-themed soiree! While no doubt a fun party, All in for Hygiene is a night dedicated to fighting hygiene insecurity in Middle Tennessee. Currently, more than 300,000 of our neighbors are struggling to afford life's everyday essentials - items like shampoo, deodorant, soap, laundry detergent and period products - none of which are covered by government assistance programs. As Middle Tennessee's only Hygiene Hub, the CRC is working everyday to remove barriers to basic hygiene for our neighbors who are struggling to afford their most basic needs.

All in for Hygiene provides the CRC with critical funds needed to continue this important work in our community. Together, let us roll the dice and go "All In" by extending a helping hand, firmly affirming that everyone deserves access to health, to hygiene, and to human dignity.

"I can't thank y'all enough for the bags of toiletries y'all provided! I'm a single mom of 3 kids and I'm taking care of my stepdad since my mom passed away last year. Between him and my kids and the way prices have been constantly rising I've really been struggling. I really appreciate this stuff more than y'all know!
THANK YOU SO MUCH."

"Thank you so much I work but the money I make is just not enough to pay my bills. Sometimes I have to borrow money or ask for the supplies I need just to make it through the next pay week."
